

99s Canadian Award
in Aviation Trust

Time to Apply for the 99s Canadian Award in Aviation

The 99s Canadian Award in Aviation is given annually to worthy, charitable organizations or institutions who work to improve and preserve aviation in Canada. The award has been in existence since 1974 and has been awarded to recipients across Canada. The board of trustees presents the award of approximately $2,000.00 on behalf of all Canadian 99s. Since its inception, the award has come to be recognized as a special part of the aviation community; not just as a financial gift, but as recognition by a prestigious international organization of women pilots.

The 2018 award went to the Alberta Aviation Museum, located in Edmonton, Alberta. They will use the money to construct a diorama depicting a Link Trainer room and the role of women, such as Margaret Littlewood, Link instructor, during the British Commonwealth Air Training Program (BCATP).

Deadline for applications for the 2019 Award is August 31; visit www.canadian99s.org and click on the Awards and Scholarships tab. Scroll down to Canadian Award in Aviation and download the fillable application.
